A BIG KLONDYKE COMPANY.

LADUE MINING AND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

It is Capitalized at $5,000,000--The Subscription Books are Now Open--Big Men at Head.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The most remarkable directory of any of the Klondyke companies is just announced here.

The company is comprised of Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central railway; Walter Webb, W. J. Arkell, Hon. C. H. MacIntosh, her Majesty's Lieutenant Governor of the British Northwest Territory; Senator Kirchoffer, Eli A. Gage, son of the Secretary of the Treasury, Dr. Parker, of the United States National Bank and Thomas L. James, ex-Post master General and president of Lincoln National Bank. The name of the venture is the Joseph Ladue Mining and Development Company, of Yukon. Its office in this city is at 20 Nassau street.

Joseph Ladue is the founder of Dawson City and has turned into the company some of the best properties in the Klondyke district, of which he was the discoverer. He was the pioneer of that region and brought back to civilization the first authentic information concerning the new gold fields.

He was immediately taken in hand and the company above named formed with a capitalization of five million dollars. The books of the company are new open for public subscription.

Ladue endured many hardships before striking paying dirt. The properties that he discovered by his invincible pluck are worth many millions of dollars.

WILL END WITH SEPTEMBER.

Gompers Says by That Date the Miners Will Have Won.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor thinks that the big coal strike will be over by the end of September and that the strikers will win.

He has given out the statement that six or seven hundred mines in West Virginia are closed. He said today that so long as the West Virginia mines were closed there was great hope that the men, who are used to hardships, will stay out.

THEY DEPEND ON CHARITY.

Imminent Danger of Bread Riot in the Mining Districts.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 27.—There is imminent danger of fierce bread riots in the mining districts. According to the report of Inspector Hazleton there are seventeen thousand persons on his list who are wholly dependent upon charity for existence.

Hazleton says that he is unable to relieve this host and that most of the families are now destitute.

Ousted Bride Groom and Bride.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HOLDGATE, O., Aug. 27.—A party of fifteen armed tramps surprised and captured the farm house of John Williams last night, and stopped the marriage of his daughter to Frank Collins. They drove the family from the house and devoured the bridal supper. They then ransacked the house. The wedding was postponed and the guests formed a posse and went in pursuit of the tramps.

Advance in Price of Provisions.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Along with the rise in the prices of bread stuffs other provisions have taken a lift. They have advanced the prices of all kinds of beef, the alleged cause being that with the rise in the price of corn farmers cannot afford to feed cattle and that there is a scarcity of beef cattle fit for market.

The Republican machine in Maryland lost the day in the State convention.

HOMICIDE AT RURAL HALL.

The Coroner from Winston Holding an Inquest Today.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

WINSTON, Aug. 27.—Yesterday a telegram came from Rural Hall, in this county, summoning the Coroner to that place to hold an inquest over the dead body of Josh Vest, an old colored man who worked for a man by the name of Moore up there. The Coroner left early this morning for Rural Hall, but up to ten o'clock nothing has been heard from there.

Parties who have been at Rural Hall recently say that it is reported that Moore struck the old negro on the head with a stick one day last week and that he has been having occasional fits ever since until the time of his death. Another gentleman who is acquainted with the old darkey says he has been subject to fits for a number of years.

SAYS MINERS WILL LOSE.

New Men to Start Some of the Pits Now Idle.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 27.—Col. W. P. Rend, the Chicago operator, who created something of a scene during the recent joint conference of miners and operators by making serious charges against President Ratchford, returned from Buffalo yesterday. When told that his charges had created considerable excitement and that intimations had been thrown out that a libel suit might be entered against him, Colonel Rend said: "Let them sue me; I am ready to prove what I charged, and I think it would be a good thing for the country if it were proved."

Speaking of the strike generally, the Colonel declared it is now certain the miners will lose it. He anticipates that within the next few days new men will be brought in to start some of the pits, but even if this is not done and the mines remain idle, the men will never get such another golden opportunity as they have rejected.

Choice in Their Selections.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

POST TOWNSHIP, Wash., Aug. 27.—The schooner Colman arrived from the mouth of the Yukon yesterday. She brings still more marvelous tales of the richness of the diggings in the Klondyke country. There is very little cleaning up being done. The prospectors merely take the nuggets. There were very few people aboard returning from the northwest.

Cloakmakers Win their Strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The cloakmakers have won their strike. Twenty thousand will get an increase of 35 per cent. in their wages. They faced starvation for many weeks without success.

A Big Success.

The lawn party given by the ladies of West Market street church on the beautiful lawn at Rev. L. W. Crawford's last night, was a big success and greatly enjoyed by the large number present. Quite a nice little sum was realized for the church.

A pleasing feature of the evening's program was the instrumental music and recitations. "Bille's Rose" was most beautifully rendered by the fascinating Miss Nellie Merrimon, which greatly delighted the crowd that had gathered in the spacious parlor of Dr. Crawford's for the occasion.

Growing.

Greensboro Council, No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., is in a growing and healthy condition. At their meeting last night two new members were elected and three applications for membership received. A week rarely passes without initiating some one.

OF A GENERAL NATURE.

A reign of terror is said to exist and a number of arrests have been made in connection with the assassination of President Borda.

The famous Khyber Pass, leading from Afghanistan into India is now completely in the hands of insurgent tribesmen.

Consul-General Lee says the reports in the case of Miss Cisneros have been greatly exaggerated.

Queen's Message to India.

SIMLA, Aug. 27.—A message from the Queen to the viceroy has been received as follows:

"I am grieved at the loss of my brave officers and men. I trust that the wounded are doing well. It is most gratifying to me to see how well my troops have behaved. The conduct of all my troops has been admirable."

["Signed"] VICTORIA."

The message was read at all the parades for the troops at the front, and was received with cheers and enthusiasm.

Dr. Kilgo to Speak Here.

Rev. John C. Kilgo, D. D., president of Trinity College, Durham, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Christian Education" in West Market street Methodist church next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

As a speaker, Dr. Kilgo has few equals, and a rare treat is in store for our people.

It is probable that J. H. Southgate president of the board of trustees of Trinity College, will be present also and speak.

Trading With a Vim.

Henry Johnson, colored, came into our office the other morning and looked around and we asked him what we could do for him. He said he and his wife had parted, and a man had offered him five cents for her and he wanted to know if the law would permit him to take it. He said he wanted to get what he could for her. We told him he could not sell his wife and he went out heavy-hearted at the loss of the five cents.—Washington Progress.

A sentry refused to admit President McKinley to the Grand Army Republic encampment yesterday.

The membership of the Grand Army on June 30th was 319,456.

WORK BADLY NEEDED.

West Market Street is Becoming Almost Impassable.

That part of West Market street between Eugene and Edgeworth streets is in a deplorable condition. The recent summer rains and the travel have made it almost impossible for loaded wagons to get over it. To render matters worse it is on an up grade.

The length of that part of the street which is without macadam is 180 yards and the width 8 yards. This would give 1,280 square yards to be improved. If the city is not in a position to put down the same kind of macadam as on the rest of the street, something should be done to render it more passable.

A cheap and excellent street can be made by first putting down cinder, which can be had for little or nothing, and then a layer of fine macadam on top of this. The sidewalk in front of Hon. John L. King's residence, on North Greene, and down to the Farmers warehouse, is made in this way and in front of the warehouse where loaded wagons are continually crossing the sidewalk at certain seasons, the material has stood the test admirably.

Fine macadam may be had for a dollar and a half per cubic yard. A layer of such macadam two inches thick, on the cinder, we are told would be sufficiently thick. On this basis one cubic yard would cover eighteen square yards of street surface, or the cost of macadamizing 18 square yards would only be a dollar and a half. Now as there are only 1,280 square yards to be covered the cost of macadam will not exceed $108. We believe these figures will be found, in the main, correct.

The city, we learn, has its own teams and if so, the cost of putting down would be comparatively small. This street is used a great deal and if something is not done before the beginning of the winter rains it will become a veritable slough.

THE CASE NOT PROSSED.

Will Patton Will Not be Tried for His Life.

The case of the State vs. Will Patton for burglary came up this morning. There was also a case against Patton for larceny, to which he pleaded guilty.

The case for burglary was not prosessed, the solicitor thinking it doubtful if a conviction could be secured.

Sentence has not yet been passed upon him for larceny, though he will likely get a term on the county roads.

It is unnecessary to say it was a great relief to Patton when the case against him for burglary was thrown out of court. Had he gone on trial and been convicted he would have ended his earthly career at the end of the hangman's rope.

Another Freak.

The freak business seems to be on a boom. John Thomas furnishes the latest addition to our museum in the shape of a twin squash. Now twin squashes may not be so rare, but one so perfectly formed as Mr. Thomas' is not so common.

The squash, or squashes, are of the gourd variety and are of good size. The two have grown together perfectly and are of the same shape, the only difference being in size, one being some larger than the other.

Will Picnic on Pilot Mountain.

A party of our young people are arranging to take advantage of Love's excursion to Mt. Airy next Saturday and will picnic on Pilot mountain on that day. They have arranged for a special car for their exclusive use and expect to carry along eighteen or twenty couples. The young ladies will provide dinner, and a gay time is anticipated.

Opening of the City Schools.

By order of the City Board of Education the city public schools will begin the fall term on next Wednesday, September 1. The regular work will begin on the first day. It is very important that all pupils enter on that day.

All white children who desire to enter the city public schools for the first time may apply for examination at the Asheboro street school on next Saturday, August 28, from 8:30 to 11 a. m.; or at the Lindsay street school on the following Monday and Tuesday at the same hours.

G. A. GRIMSLEY,

The exercises of Children's day will take place of the regular preaching service at 11 a. m. Music and flowers and singing will make a service unusually enjoyable and inspiring. All are invited.

SKILLED THESPIANS, THESE.

To some, perhaps, the Governor's letters to Maj. J. W. Wilson, and Otto Wilson, published in yesterday's morning papers, summoning them to appear before him and show cause why they should not be removed from the Railroad Commission, came as a surprise. Everybody was conversant with the open hostility of Senator Butler to certain members of the commission. There was no room for doubt as to what his course would have been if their fate had lain in his hands. They would have been removed without further ceremony.

It is known, however, that he had a consultation with the governor. What these two worthy patriots discussed is not known, but may be inferred with tolerable certainty from the sequel. It is self-evident that these letters are its fruits.

Whether Governor Russell is right or wrong in the matter, we make no pretensions to knowing. Certainly he has acted fairly enough in giving the commissioners the opportunity of answering the charges preferred. They may or may not be dismissed from the commission; that is not a matter of very grave importance, for if rightly dismissed the probabilities are two men no better will fill their places.

There is a feature of the whole business though that is worthy of attention; it is the unmistakable air of playing to the galleries that hovers around it. The demagogue is never so dangerous as when he wears the garb of the vigilant defender of the humble citizen. Both the Governor and the Senator are at home in that role. The opportunity has come and they have seized it. Either way the matter turns out, they are bound to be the gainers. If the charges are refuted successfully, they get the credit of unsleeping watchfulness. If the commissioners are dismissed, they will be applauded for exposing corruption in high places. It is a fortuitous circumstance.

It is further notable that the Governor and the Senator have a thorough understanding in the matter. This move is more for the benefit of the former than the latter. Undoubtedly Mr. Butler feels that his prestige is in danger. There are some tolerably devious kinks in his record from which he would fain divert a too scrutinizing attention. Behold his opportunity. He has had a devoted and enthusiastic following among a considerable section of our people. He knows that no man is anxious to find his idol has feet of clay. Hereby he will prove that his are of pure gold. The follower who had begun to waver is expected by this coup to be infused with more than the old time zeal.

It is a very pretty play—a play with a purposeful moral. It will have its effect, let no man mistake that. He who imagines that either Mr. Russell or Mr. Butler does not know how to turn an occasion to his advantage must be a poor student of political history; he will wake up, as certain others in our time, to find it easier to despise than to defeat an opponent.

It is scarcely probable that what the Governor has done was through the disinterested love he bears the Senator. The latter needed this move very badly; the former makes it for him. What is to be the price? Be sure it has been fixed. Neither of these gentlemen is on the hunt for a political Waterloo. They are taking time by the forelock. This sudden burst of cordiality "hath a dubious seeming."

Developments are likely to show that either can play his cards without a prompter looking over his shoulder. North Carolina has had enough of Russellism and Butlerism. We submit the proposition on the record of the two isms in this State. If her name is not to become a by-word and jest among men; if her institutions are to be preserved inviolate; if she is not to be thrust backward just when she is setting foot upon a path that leads to better things, this farce of the "reformers" must end. The men who have her best interests at heart, regardless of party, must see to it that so soon as possible, her destiny is wrested from the hands of men who have thrown dice for her places of honor, and drained to the dregs a toast to her degradation. It will not be so easy a task as some men seem to think; but it can be done, and on the issue of clean government alone.

A DISPATCH says that a banker became crazy on a train between Council Bluffs and Chicago, and began throwing money and valuables at the people on the train—"hurling a shower of gold at the fleeing passengers"—is the exact language. It omits to say which way they were fleeing, but we will back the assertion that no wounds were inflicted in the back.

THE agricultural department probably fancies that in "experimenting with plants indigenous to the Russian Steppes" it is doing original work, but the Federal judiciary had previously planted several thriving shoots from that same region.

IF KANSAS farmers, after paying off their mortgages, have any surplus by reason of dollar wheat, we would suggest that they also pay off Mary Ellen; and allow her to retire to the bosom of her family.

ONE of the favorite questions in the Senatorial campaign in South Carolina is "Who is the thief and the liar?" As the melancholy Dane would say, "Aye, there's the rub."

AFTER considerable examination of the caudal appendage of the British lion, President Kruger has found room for one more knot. It is of the variety to which the jack tar is addicted.

THE negroes in South Carolina are busy "burying the devil," they say, but the whites are likely to find he has only been planted.

A Genuine Kindergarten.

A movement is on foot to establish a first-class kindergarten in this city. Such a school has long been needed here, and the people are to be congratulated that a genuine kindergarten is now within their reach. The enterprise will be under the management of Miss Anna P. Jones, formerly of Guilford College, but for the last few years a teacher in the school here for the blind. She will spare no pains to make it a success; that is to say, to make the proposed institution a veritable children's paradise. She is thoroughly fitted by training, experience and disposition for her delightful but difficult task. She realizes fully that a true kindergarten must provide for the physical, mental and moral needs of the children, and she will do her work in the reverent spirit of Froebel, the inspired founder of the system.—News and Observer.

Breezy Notes From the Erstwhile Metropolis of the State.

Special Cor. THE TELEGRAM.

FAYETTEVILLE, Aug. 26.—The county dispensary is doing a good business and has done much to lessen the sale of liquor and to decrease drunkenness. There are, no doubt, some "blind tigers" about town, but blind tigers are not near so bad as the unchained fellows. The dispensary has proven a blessing to some homes and individuals. The men who run "blind tigers" and defy the law are criminals and ought to be so regarded by law-abiding citizens.

The graded schools will open September 20th and run as long as the funds will allow. The following teachers will have charge of the work: Miss P. H. Matthews, superintendent; Misses B. W. Evans, G. B. Worth, M. M. Broadfoot, Lizzie Lamb and Ethel Fisher. Mr. J. A. McLean will have charge of the pay grade.

Col. Drewry's military academy will open September 1st. There is a prospect for an increased attendance. This school is one of the best in the state and a safe place to send a boy.

There is some talk of organizing a fire company on Haymont. Look out for them at the Goldsboro tournament next year.

The Fayetteville cotton market bids fair to rival all other competitors this year. There will be a number of buyers here and good prices will be paid for the fleecy staple.

Fayetteville will soon have electric lights, the contract having been awarded to the Fort Wayne Electric corporation for the sum of $6,773. The old town seems to be on the up grade and will yet shine in beauty by her younger sisters in the state.

The only eye witness to the murder of Flagman Blackwell, on the A. C. L., has been found. The case will come up at the next term of Harnett county court. Purvis, the accused murderer, was badly hurt by the train at Manchester, and is seriously sick in the Fayetteville jail.

Crops are fine, business is brightening and the prosperity wave, with its white cap of good cheer, is speeding on, to bless our land. Good times are upon us—may, they are always with us and we would see them if we would look up to the Giver of every good gift.

September 20th High Point's graded schools will open. The new building will be ready for use at that time. The indications point to a good opening. Prof. Crowell is in town and his continued efforts are stirring up an enthusiasm for educational work that High Point has never shown before. The various recitation rooms have been fitted up with heavy slate blackboards and workmen are busy fixing up every department of the school building according to the latest approved methods.

Thirty-five or forty young people were there to participate in the pleasures of the occasion, among which was a watermelon feast. A bountiful supply of melons had been procured, and the young people did them ample justice.

The enchanting music furnished by some of the young ladies was a special feature of the evening's entertainment.

Will Not Run.

J. H. West yesterday afternoon received a telegram from Col. W. A. Turk saying that owing to the lateness of the season and the fact of the territory having been worked, the proposed excursions to Asheville and Norfolk would not be run. It was the intention of the management to run these two excursions some time in September and to give a cheaper rate than has yet been given this season.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Armfield, Ridge & Vickery in this issue. They have a few goods on hand yet which they will sell at any price.
